"And if you should become President, will you faithfully protect and defend the records, files, tax returns and tapes of the President who named you?"